EGYPTAIR CARGO HONOURS CARGO AGENTS AND EXPORTERS AFTER FINANCIAL SUCCESS

News / Airlines

EgyptAir Cargo reported 150 per cent profits this year when compared to 2014, and honoured cargo agents and exporters after they achieved the highest aircraft sales.

Chairman and CEO of EgyptAir Cargo, Capt. Bassem Gohar, honoured and awarded the twenty export companies and cargo agents with certificates of appreciationafter the successful financial year.

"I'd like to thank you as EgyptAir Cargo achieved 150% profits in comparison with the last year, with 140% increase than what is planned for during the financial year 2014/2015. This is considered a great achievement in the company's profits," Gohar said as he thanked the cargo agents.

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.

They discussed the development of EgyptAir Cargo, where it plans to update and develop tools to improve the shipping and storage of Egyptian products.

Gohar also addressed the problems faced by EgyptAir Cargo, and how the two teams can work together in order to continue generating profit whilst offering a quality service.

24 SEPTEMBER 2015

SOURCE: AFRICANAEROSPACE
ARTICLE LINK:
https://ut.50skyshades.com/news/airlines/egyptair-cargo-honours-cargo-agents-and-exporters-after-financial-success

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.