EVA AIR PRESENTS ITS HELLO KITTY AIRCRAFT BETWEEN PARIS-TAIPEI

News / Airlines

EVA Air announces the return of its unique Hello Kitty offer. From December 27, 2024, an aircraft adorned with the Hello Kitty colors and emblems will exclusively serve the route between Paris-Charles de Gaulle and Taipei. Flights from Paris will take place on Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays. For passengers travelling on other days of the week, cabin fittings will remain in the same Hello Kitty theme, so that they too can enjoy the Hello Kitty experience on board an EVA aircraft.

This exceptional collaboration, combining creativity and customer experience, promises a complete immersion in the playful and enchanting world of Hello Kitty, offering passengers a memorable and unique journey.

An aerial celebration for 50 years of Hello Kitty

As part of the celebrations marking the 50th anniversary of Hello Kitty, EVA Air marks a new stage in its historic partnership with Sanrio, the company creating the iconic character. This partnership, initiated in 2005, had already thrilled travelers with themed aircraft that transformed every flight into a unique and joyful experience. In 2024, the Hello Kitty universe returns in full force: interior and exterior decorations featuring Sanrio characters, exclusive tableware and other tailor-made
