MONTENEGRO AIRLINES TO START BOSNIA HERZEGOVINA-AUSTRIA OPS

News / Airlines

Montenegro Airlines (YM, Podgorica) has signed a partnership agreement with Tuzla Int'l airport in Bosnia Herzegovina wherein the Montenegrin carrier will operate two weekly return charter flights to Vienna, Austria beginning December 21.

A total of forty flights will be flown through to March 31 of next year. There are plans to develop the service into a scheduled operation should it prove commercially viable.

Currently, Tuzla is served by Wizz Air (W6, Budapest) which offers flights to Basle/Mulhouse/Freiburg, Dortmund , Eindhoven, Frankfurt Hahn, Gothenburg Landvetter, Malmö, Memmingen, Oslo Torp, and Stockholm Skavsta.
