News / Business aviation, Events / Festivals

We are sure that most people in business aviation industry knows Mr. Stanley Bugeja, the Managing Director of DC-Aviation Malta. He has amazing capacity to manage several roles, as he is known as President of Malta Business Aviation Association and the latest role – one of founding partners of MACE - Malta Aviation Conference and Expo.

Obviously, before going to EBACE2022 we booked a meeting with Mr. Bugeja to discuss the impact of actual situation in the World on DC-Aviation Malta business, possible actions Malta Business Aviation Association side and of course find out a bit more regarding MACE2022, planned early October.

I must confess, it is quite difficult to talk at EBACE, so many excited and happy professionals running all around trying to catch up with colleagues, partners and friends and everyone talks at the same time. But this is a true value for us, sharing with you some real-life moments. So CLICK ON THE PHOTO and enjoy the discussion:
