TAMARACK AEROSPACE GROUP EXPANDS NORTH AMERICA DEALERSHIP ALLIANCE WITH TOLEDO JET

News / Business aviation, Maintenance / Trainings

Tamarack Aerospace Group continues the expansion of its Authorized Dealership Network with the addition of Toledo Jet LLC as a new Winglet Dealer and Installation Center. The partnership provides increased convenience to the CitationJet community, as Toledo Jet Center operates at multiple locations, including Toledo, Ohio (KTOL), and Fort Lauderdale Executive Airport in Florida (KXFE).

Eric Cunningham, Vice President of Sales at Tamarack commented: “Tamarack Aerospace Group has made a great move by expanding its dealership network with Toledo Jet LLC. These locations ensure CitationJet operators can easily access our factory-trained installation services, enhancing their aircraft performance and safety with every flight.”

Founded in 2009 after Textron closed its Citation Service Center in Toledo, OH, Toledo Jet Center has swiftly become a respected name in business aviation. Greg Fell stated: “We are excited about the partnership with Tamarack Aerospace and the opportunities it brings. We believe Toledo Jet Center is well-positioned for significant growth due to the high demand for Tamarack Active Winglets.”

Toledo Jet LLC’s momentum has recently increased with an acquisition by 313 Equity Partners. Through this agreement, Greg Fell—who led the investment as a partner at 313 Equity Partners—will become CEO of Toledo Jet Center. Fell previously served as Chief Operating Officer of Gama Aviation US and Chief Executive Officer of JetNet.

Tamarack Aerospace Group continues to revolutionize the aviation industry with its innovative Winglet solutions, and the expansion of its dealership network to include Toledo Jet LLC marks the next step in providing enhanced service, quality, and convenience to CitationJet operators.
