AIRSHOW 2021 - NEW DATES ANNOUNCED

News / Events / Festivals

Last week, AMDA Foundation Limited announced that, due to the effects of the COVID-19 Coronavirus pandemic, the 2021 Australian International Airshow and Aerospace & Defence Exposition (AIRSHOW 2021) would be deferred from its original February dates to November 2021. The new dates for AVALON 2021 have now been determined.

TRADE VISITORS ONLY: Tuesday 23 to Friday 26 November until 2pm

PUBLIC DAYS: Friday 26 to Sunday 28 November 2021

AMDA CEO, Mr Honnery said, “As the centrepiece of the Royal Australian Air Force’s Centenary celebrations, AVALON 2021 will have great national and international significance. Deferring AVALON 2021 to November will ensure the event serves its purpose as a spectacular celebration of 100 years of the Royal Australian Air Force”

As one of the world’s great air shows, AVALON is the most spectacular and the most comprehensive aviation, aerospace and defence event in the Indo Asia Pacific region. Uniquely, AVALON is Australia’s largest combined business exposition and public entertainment spectacular.
