CANNES IS THE PLACE TO BE IN SEPTEMBER FOR FLIGHT OPS PROFESSIONALS' TRAINING NEEDS

News / Business aviation, Events / Festivals

Flight and ground operations professionals in business aviation will be headed to Cannes this September to harness the unique training opportunities on offer at AIR OPS Europe.

"This is a not to-be-missed chance for business aviation operations professionals to get trained up on the latest knowledge and techniques in the industry," says Brandon Mitchener, EBAA CEO. "Not only are the mandated courses on offer in one convenient location, but what a location – Cannes!"

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.

Whether it's for compulsory Flight Dispatch courses, Ground Handling Safety, EASA-required Accountable Managers & Nominated Persons, or IS-BAH Workshops, Cannes is the place to be in September for business aviation ops training. What is more, course registration fees include a complimentary entrance pass for AIR OPS Europe, including the exhibition.

See the full programme.

Find out more about AIR OPS Europe.

31 AUGUST 2017

ARTICLE LINK:
https://ut.50skyshades.com/news/events-festivals/cannes-is-the-place-to-be-in-september-for-flight-ops-professionals-training-needs

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.