ISTANBUL AIRSHOW IS GETTING READY FOR WELCOMING AVIATION WORLD GIANTS

News / Airlines, Business aviation, Events / Festivals

12th ISTANBUL AIRSHOW, which has been organized biannually since 1996, is going to open its doors on the 27th of September and will be open until the public day, 30th of September.

The show evolved to today's situation, in parallel to the significant performance of the Turkish civil aviation industry in the last 15 years and with the full support of the international aviation community for over 22 years. Once again, it is going to be held with the full support of the Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure, the Undersecretariat for Defence Industries, the General Directorate of Civil Aviation, the General Directorate of State Airports Authority, and the sponsorship of Turkish Airlines, TURKISH AIRLINES TECHNIC, TAV Airports Holding and TURKISH AEROSPACE INDUSTRIES.

© 2018 - 2026 FIFTY SKY SHADES. Any reproduction, copy, use or transmission for commercial purposes is prohibited.

Together with leading companies from commercial, business and general aviation like AIRBUS, SIKORSKY, BELL, DASAULT, BOMBARDIER, AMAC, CESSNA, DIAMOND AIRCRAFT, LEONARDO, companies from mro and airport industries, will be exhibiting at ISTANBUL AIRSHOW which is unique by being the single "Civil Only" aviation platform in the world that incorporates all aspects of civil aviation.

In addition to support of Small and Medium Industry Development Organization to small and medium size Turkish companies as in previous years, the domestic manufacturers, which participated at separate section within the event via the guidance of Turkish Technic in 2016, will again have the same advantages and will once more have the chance to engage an expanding global audience.

ISTANBUL AIRSHOW 2018 will be visited by national and international key decision makers and will welcome world leading engine and aircraft manufacturers as exhibitors.

The Show, primarily having the aim of meeting the challenges offered by the Eurasian and the Middle Eastern markets, alongside with the stunning developments in Turkish aviation industry and Turkey's 2023 targets, will be offering a great opportunity for aviation industry representatives who want to be the part of the big game.

25 SEPTEMBER 2018

ARTICLE LINK:
https://ut.50skyshades.com/news/events-festivals/istanbul-airshow-is-getting-ready-for-welcoming-aviation-world-giants

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.