

CIRRUS AIRCRAFT OPENS NEW SALES OFFICE IN FRANCE

News / Business aviation, Manufacturer

Cirrus Aircraft announced the establishment of Cirrus France, a new, dedicated regional sales office offering new and existing French customers an ideally located aircraft sales location. The office will be led by Cedric Dupont who has been appointed as Regional Sales Director of Cirrus France.

Cirrus Aircraft is committed to the French general aviation market considering the rich aviation culture in the country and in response to the ongoing demand for high-performance, luxury aircraft coupled with industry-leading safety features.

Cirrus France complements its existing European network of Cirrus Sales Agents, Cirrus Training Centers, and Authorized Service Centers.

The company plans to host Discover Cirrus events at regional airports for existing and prospective customers interested in connecting with the Cirrus Aircraft team, owners and pilots, and to learn more about the Cirrus Life.

Cirrus Aircraft is a globally recognized leader in personal aviation and the manufacturer of the best-selling SR Series for twenty years in a row and the Vision Jet for three years in a row. Cirrus France officially launched on March 31.
