PETROLEUM AIR SERVICES BECOMES FIRST AUTHORIZED BELL HELICOPTER CUSTOMER SERVICE IN NORTH AFRICA

News / Business aviation, Manufacturer

Bell Helicopter announced that, Petroleum Air Services has been appointed as the first Bell Helicopter Authorized Customer Service Facility in North Africa.

“Since 1982, we have been providing both fixed wing and helicopter transportation to the oil and gas and travel industries in Egypt,” said General Yehia Hussein, Chairman and Managing Director Petroleum Air Services. “We are extremely excited to have been chosen as the very first authorized Bell Helicopter Customer Service Facility in North Africa. This is a major achievement.”

“Petroleum Air Services represents a tremendous and well known capability in Egypt, and we are delighted that they are joining the award winning Bell Helicopter service and support network,” said Neil Jones, manager of the Bell Helicopter Customer Service Facility Network. “At Bell Helicopter, we know the importance of being close to our customers to maintain the readiness of their aircraft. That is why we’ve established an industry leading aftermarket support network, as we continue to grow, we will listen to our customers and ensure that their aircraft are mission ready anywhere on the globe and that they have access to the support they need.”
